

Proud to be Australian

Up I climb Uluru and despite the dust I see Kangaroos.

The Kookaburra in the highest tree quietly laughs along with me.

The Tawny Frog Mouths fly into the sky and the Wombat slowly closes his eyes.

The Koalas sleeping in the old gum tree,
while the Emu struts along with glee.

That's Australia you bet it is, I can say for everyone we are proud to be Australian.
