Chapter

It was a hot day and the sun was shining brightly. The children were playing in the park. They were laughing and running around. One of the children was riding a bicycle. The other children were watching and cheering. The bicycle was very fast and the rider was going very fast. The children were all having a great time. They were playing for hours and didn't even realize it was getting late. The sun was starting to set and the children were still playing. They were all very happy and enjoyed their time in the park.
